

Heyninck & Partners is an independent international law firm that offers complex legal services to entrepreneurs doing business in the Czech Republic.

We are based in Prague and represent mainly foreign investors; a large section of our client-base are firms and institutions from Belgium and the Netherlands.

Our core areas of practice are corporate and commercial law, labour law, finance, capital markets, real estate, and dispute resolution, including assisting clients in establishing their operations in the Czech Republic.

In order to support the growth of our practice and strengthen our team we are looking for a commercially minded

Corporate Lawyer

Function description:

You will assist and advise clients regarding corporate, financial and real estate transactions.

You will support senior members of the team in relation to provision of strategic advice to clients.

You will be involved in coaching and supervising junior team members, thereby playing an important role in the further development of the practice.

Profile:

You have a university degree in law.

You have gained 2-5 years of relevant experience in a similar position where you demonstrated practical abilities and business skills.

You should be fluent in English and knowledge of other foreign languages would be appreciated. Knowledge of Czech language is necessary.

You have understanding of business, a professional and ethical attitude, and you are willing to commit yourself to a challenging work environment.

Offer:

We will provide you with high quality legal work that you can organize with a significant level of autonomy and responsibility, whilst being able to seek the advice and counsel of more senior colleagues within the team.

We offer you a unique opportunity to work in an international, flexible environment and to be part of a very focused and enthusiastic team.

You will have the opportunity to grow within Heyninck & Partners.

Our firm is known for its commitment to an equitable work/life balance.
